

Public Appointments: No-account diversity collection form

Thank you for taking the time to complete this form, it should only take a few minutes to complete.

We collect equality information, including information about people's socio-economic backgrounds, so that we can make sure our recruitment processes are fair for everyone. Without this we are unable to see if practices are having an unfair impact on certain groups and whether changes are making a positive difference. Our privacy notice sets out in more detail how we will use your personal data, and your rights. It is made under Articles 13 and/or 14 of the UK General Data Protection Regulation (GDPR).

If you would like to be able to review and update your information please create an account on the Apply for a Public Appointment service.
